

I represent a small non-profit which provides internet access to approximately 100 individuals. The cost of meeting this monitoring plan would be prohibitive to us. We would probably have to discontinue offering internet access if this rule became law.